Plot with fabulous sea views

Situated in the peaceful street of Encosta do Lobo, this property is made up of four smaller plots of 270m², 240m², 375m² and 370m² respectively. One could either build four smaller townhouses, or put the four plots together and build one big villa of approx 1000m², plus basement and pool. The potential villa will have partial, but uninterrupted sea views from the ground and first floor and 180-degree views from the roof terrace. Also, due to the slope of the plot, the basement area will have plenty of natural light. A great investment opportunity, in a superb location. - REF: P246
